Waarom? Who? Maintenant? Seriously? ...

Het is een lange tijd geleden dat we elkaar hebben ontmoet, that we played, q que nous sommes allés à la découverte, gefunde, קרא, abbiamo pianto, šoku, learned, ...

Toch staan we nu eindelijk for a brand new chance, une nouvelle période... Aber wir stehen vor einer völlig neuen challenge. A tato výzva je ... LANGUAGE...

During a DvT conference there are dozens of languages that we speak.

Luckily enough, we also have DvT! A language that we assume to speak, hope to speak, or pretend to speak!

However, ...

Are we still speaking our beloved DvT language? Can we still do it? Or have things changed? Because it's been a while...

For this conference, we might need to hire some extra translators / interpreters just in case!

Or maybe we can do this together.

This is the moment, this is your moment, this is our moment.

We invite all practitioners to give a 90 min workshop/presentation.

Please submit your proposal using the following form to:

dvtconferencebelgium@gmail.com

The deadline for submissions is Januari 31st, 2022.
